EXHIBIT "A"

That Chapter 1, "General Provisions", Section 13, "Alcoholic Beverages", of the Code of Ordinances of the City of College Station, Texas, is hereby amended by adding a new paragraph B, "Possession and Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages in Northgate Central Business District", as set out hereafter to read as follows:

"SECTION 13: ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

B. POSSESSION AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES IN NORTHGATE CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT.

- (1) On October 21, 2004, the City Council adopted and declared that open containers and public consumption in the Northgate Central Business District was a risk to the health and safety of the citizens of the City.
- (2) On December 20, 2004, the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission granted an order giving the City the authority to approve an ordinance regulating open containers and public consumption of alcoholic beverages in the Northgate Central Business District.
- (3) Public Consumption and Possession
  - (a) In the Northgate Central Business District, it shall be unlawful to possess an open container or publicly consume an alcoholic beverage.
  - (b) This ordinance shall not be applicable to buildings not owned or controlled by the City of College Station, residential structures, or licensed premises located in the Northgate Central Business District or the possession of open containers or consumption of alcoholic beverages in motor vehicles.
- (4) The prohibition of public consumption and possession shall not apply to special events granted pursuant to Chapter 4, Section 4, of the Code of Ordinances of the City of College Station. A special event providing for alcohol sales and consumption shall have a valid permit or license to sell or serve alcoholic beverages issued by the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

- (5) If a person possesses or has in his or her possession an open container specifically made for the purpose of containing an alcoholic beverage or is labeled as containing an alcoholic beverage, it shall be presumed that any content therein is an alcoholic beverage.
- (6) The Northgate Central Business District is hereby defined as the area set out on the attached map that was approved by the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission Order of December 20, 2004.”
