Workshop Agenda Item No. 2
Role of the RVP and City Responsibilities

To: Glenn Brown, City Manager

From: David Gwin, Director of Economic and Community Development

Agenda Caption: Presentation, discussion and possible action regarding the general roles of the Research Valley Partnership and the City in economic development activities.

Relationship to Strategic Goals: Goal III.2 Define roles of RVP and Economic Development staff

Recommendation(s): This item is being brought forward at the request of the City Council. Staff recommends that the Council receive the presentation and provide feedback and direction.

Summary: The Research Valley Partnership (RVP) was originally formed as the Bryan/College Station Economic Development Corporation in 1989 to coordinate regional type of economic development for College Station, Bryan and Brazos County. Since that time, the RVP has traditionally targeted large scale industrial/manufacturing developments with an emphasis on biotechnology, information technology, and research and development centers. Conversely, the City has focused on retail development that fulfills specific development goals as well as tourism development, redevelopment, special districts, and historical or arts related development. Additionally, the City assists the RVP once a decision to locate in College Station has been made by a development prospect.

To facilitate economic growth and diversification, both the RVP and the City offer performance-based incentive programs to prospective developments in their respective target industries. Staff will provide a presentation outlining the general roles and responsibilities of the RVP and the City at the meeting and requests that the Council provide feedback or direction.

Budget & Financial Summary: The City of College Station budgeted $300,000 for the RVP in the current fiscal year. The City of Bryan and Brazos County each provide this amount to the RVP as well. The Economic Development Department currently maintains an operating budget of $549,000.

That contract has been awarded and the consultant has started work, with the goal of completing the study in April 2011. To achieve this completion date will require a concerted effort from staff, City Council, and the Planning & Zoning Commission. Please note that by Ordinance, City Council has already appointed P&Z to be the "Capital Improvement Advisory Committee" (or CIAC) that is required by State law to perform many functions in the process of determining potential impact fees.

Mr. Tony Bagwell of HDR will provide a briefing to cover the following topics:

Workshop Agenda Item No. 5
Bryan / College Station Convention and Visitors Bureau By-Law Amendments

To: Glenn Brown, City Manager

From: David Gwin, Director of Economic and Community Development

Agenda Caption: Presentation, possible action, and discussion regarding potential amendments to the Bryan / College Station Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) By-Laws

Recommendation(s): Staff recommends that the City Council receive the presentation and provide any input or direction in this regard.

Summary: On June 10, 2010, staff provided a presentation to the City Council outlining several By-Law Amendments as considered by the CVB. These amendments included:

- 1) Amend Article V – Board of Directors, by allowing only one (1) elected official or employee to be appointed from each funding entity and eliminate the restriction of employees of the funding entities from serving on the Board of Directors or their Executive Committee.
- 2) Amend Article XIII – Amendment to the By-Laws, by including a provision requiring both City Councils' approval of any By-Law amendment pertaining to matters of governance which included: Section 3.01 – Purpose; Section 5.02.a(1) - Executive Committee nominations; Section 5.02.a(3) - Increase of the size of the Board of Directors; Section 5.08 - Quorum.

The City Council directed staff to work with the CVB by incorporating several additions and clarifications to these amendments. These include:

- 1) Professional staff of any funding entity would not be permitted to serve except in an ex-officio capacity.
- 2) In addition to the above referenced sections, the following sections would also be considered as "pertaining to matters of governance": Section 5.03 – Membership Terms; Section 5.05 – Qualifications of Members; Article IX – Fiscal Matters; and Article XIII – Amendments to By-Laws.
- 3) Approval or veto power over matters of governance would be reserved solely for the funding entity that provides a majority of the CVB's annual appropriation.

The CVB Board has since agreed to include the first two items above in their proposed Bylaw Amendments. However, the Board indicated that they are unable to include the third consideration and instead maintain that the approval or veto power over matters of governance be shared by both the City of College Station and the City of Bryan. The specific language as originally proposed by the City is found in Attachment 2.

Budget & Financial Summary: In FY 2010, the City Council allocated $1,107,000 in annual funding for the CVB. The City of College Station continues to be the primary source of funding for the CVB and its various tourism development and enhancement activities.

Once approved and funding by the Cities has been determined, such funds shall be transmitted to the corporation by the City governments. Such funds shall be deposited in a special bank account to insure the expenditure of the funds for proper purposes in accordance with the approved budget.

Directors will discharge their duties, including duties as committee members, in good faith, with ordinary care, and in the manner they reasonably believe to be in the corporation's best interest. In this contest, "ordinary care" means the care that ordinarily prudent persons in similar positions would exercise under similar circumstances. Section 5.12 Duty to Avoid Improper Distributions. Directors who vote for or assent to improper distributions are jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of improperly distributed assets, to the extent that, as a result of the improper distribution or distributions, the corporation lacks sufficient assets to pay its debts, obligations and liabilities. Any distribution made during liquidation without payment and discharge of or provision for payment and discharge of all known debts, obligations and liabilities is also improper. Directors present at a Board meeting at which the improper action is taken are presumed to have assented, unless the dissent is entered into the minutes of the meeting or they dissent in writing. The written dissent must be filed with the Secretary of the corporation before adjournment of the meeting in question or mailed to the Secretary by registered mail immediately after adjournment.

A Director is not liable if, in voting for or assenting to a distribution, the Director (1) relies in good faith and with ordinary care on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by one or more officers or employees of the corporation; legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters of the Director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or a committee of the Board of Directors of which the Director is not a member or (2) while acting in good faith and with ordinary care, considers the corporation's assets to be at least that of their book value; or (3) in determining whether the corporation made adequate provision for paying, satisfying or discharging all of its liabilities and obligations, relied in good faith and with ordinary care on financial statements or other information concerning a person who was or became contractually obligated to satisfy or discharge some or all of these liabilities or obligations. Further, Directors are protected from liability if, in exercising ordinary care, they acted in good faith and in reliance on an opinion of legal counsel for the corporation.

Directors held liable for an improper distribution are entitled to contribution from persons who accepted or received the improper distributions knowing they were improper. Contribution is in proportion to the amount received by each such person.

Section 5.13 Delegating Duties. The Board of Directors may select advisors and delegate duties and responsibilities to them, such as the power to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of the corporation's asset and properties at a time and for a consideration that the Board deems appropriate. The Directors shall have no liability for actions taken or omitted by the advisors if the Board acts in good faith and with ordinary care in selecting the advisor. The Board may remove or replace the advisor(s) at any time and without cause.

Section 5.14 Removal. The Board of Directors may vote to remove a Director at any time, without cause. The failure to attend three (3) consecutive Board meetings or any four (4) regular meetings in one fiscal year may cause the issue of removal to automatically be placed upon the agenda of the next succeeding meeting of the Board of Directors after the last infraction. A meeting to consider removing a Director will be called and noticed following notice procedures provided in these By-Laws. Removal of a Director requires the affirmative vote of three (3) members of the Executive Committee and the majority vote of the entire Board.

ARTICLE XI – Indemnification

Section 11.01 The corporation shall indemnify a director, employee or agent of the corporation who was, is, or may be named a defendant of respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omissions within the scope of his or her official capacity in the corporation.

Section 11.02 The corporation shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interest. In case of a criminal proceeding, the person will be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. The corporation will not indemnify a person who is found liable to the corporation or is found liable to another on the basis of improperly receiving a personal benefit from the corporation.

Section 11.03 For purposes of this article, a person is conclusively considered to have been found liable in relation to any claim, issue, or matter if the person has been adjudged liable by a court of competent jurisdiction and all appeals have been exhausted. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the corporation.

Section 11.04 The corporation shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director, employee or agent of the corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the corporation when the person is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

The corporation will not, however, indemnify any person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited under Section 11.02.

Section 11.06 The corporation may advance expenses incurred or to be incurred in the defense of a proceeding to a person who might eventually be entitled to indemnification, even though there has been no final disposition of the proceeding. Advancement of expenses may occur only when the procedural conditions set out in Section 10.08 hereinbelow, have been satisfied. The corporation will not, under any circumstances, advance expenses to a person before final disposition of a proceeding if the person is a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the corporation, or if the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other intentional or willful misconduct.

Section 11.07 The indemnity permitted under these By-Laws includes indemnity against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. If the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.

Section 11.08 (a) Before the corporation may pay an indemnification expenses, the corporation must specifically: (1) determine that indemnification is permissible, (2) authorize indemnification, and (3) determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in subparagraph 11.08(c) hereinbelow. The corporation may make these determinations and decisions, subject to the exception set out in subparagraph 11.08(b) herinbelow, by any one of the following procedures:

- (i) Majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding
- (ii) If such quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of Directors designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all directors, consisting solely of two or more directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.
- (iii) Determination by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by the same vote as provided in subparagraphs 11.08(a)(i) and (ii) above, or if such quorum cannot be obtained or such committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of all directors.

(b) Subject to subparagraph 11.08(a)(iii) above, to determine if indemnification is permissible, the authorization to indemnify and determination as to the reasonableness of the expenses shall be made as specified in subparagraphs 11.08(a)(i) and (ii) above, or if such quorum or such committee cannot be established, by majority vote of all directors. Any provision in these By-Laws making indemnification mandatory constitutes sufficient authorization to indemnify, even though such provision may not have been adopted or authorized as provided in Section 11.08(a) above.

(c) The corporation will advance expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after it determines the facts then known do not preclude indemnification, such determination to be made pursuant to the procedures set out in subparagraph 11.08(a) above.
