- Diverse Growing Economy
- Improving Mobility

Recommendation(s): N/A

Summary: The Bicycle, Pedestrian and Greenways Master Plan, a component of the College Station Comprehensive Plan, was adopted in January 2010 and is currently being updated. The intent of the Master Plan is to provide information and guidance to implement the community's desire to create a bikable, walkable and environmentally aware city to live in.

The planning process began in October 2016 and includes a staff resource team and the Bicycle, Pedestrian and Greenways Advisory Board. Citizen engagement has included a community meeting and online survey.

Staff will provide an update on the planning process and a summary of citizen input received thus far in preparation for adoption of proposed changes in the fall.

Presentation, possible action, and discussion regarding an update briefing of the City's Open Data Portal.

Relationship to Strategic Goals:

- Good Governance

Recommendation(s): Presented as information.

Summary: At the January 22, 2015 Council Workshop, staff briefed Council regarding potential City approaches to an Open Data Initiative. Council directed staff to proceed with developing an Open Data plan. Initial funding was included in the FY 2016 budget to engage with a vendor to launch an Open Data Portal.

Due to other projects, the implementation of the Open Data Portal was delayed by several months. The Portal was launched on December 29, 2016.

Budget & Financial Summary: Funding for the current Open Data Portal through 9/30/2017 is included in the IT Operational Budget. Funding through 9/30/2018 will be requested by SLA.
